The American Osteopathic Association supports preventative prescribing of Naloxone and the education and training of its use for patients at risk of overdose, family members, and caregivers, in order to prevent opioid/opiate related deaths. 2018